Registration: You can call in or attend in person in Helena. Please review the webinar on the section you will attend then complete the guiding questions. Submit the questions to ESSAinput@mt.gov and bold on the top of your guiding questions document which section you will attend and if you will call in or attend in person. We will then send you the conference call details, location and agenda. The above topics and dates have been selected due to feedback we would like to discuss and address prior to the completion of the draft plan; however, there will continue to be discussion and revisions throughout the summer.
